

Twisting bloom

Dizzy spins, whirling, blossoming

Heart jumping, chest constricting

Unravelling your mind in time

Little footsteps quickly turn,

Accelerating starry eyes

Dizzy spins, whirling blossoming

You revel in each spin

The clock ticks, as your body sways

Unravelling your mind in time

Each step further out of line

Movements akin to a bombard

Dizzy spins, whirling blossoming

Giggles erupt, sustain circles

Hair almost, almost floating

Unravelling your mind in time

Twisting tumbling falling through air

Then Slowly clumsily you stop

Dizzy spins whirling blossoming

Unravelling your mind in time
